SOLD OUT!

Those words are like music to the ears of performing arts producers. They are even sweeter when repeated three times over.

Last week the two words brought smiles to the faces of those involved with the Northern Lights Overture, the gala production which will mark the opening of the Northern Lights Performing Arts Pavilion in Haliburton.

As of late last week, all seats for the Thursday, Friday and Saturday night performances of the Overture had been sold. There were still seats available for the Sunday matinee performance, but they are expected to go quickly.

"I can't believe we've sold out already," producer Curtis Eastmure said. "This is fantastic!"

Tickets for the Sunday performance, if there are still any left, are available at The Storeroom in Minden, Cranberry Cottage in Haliburton or by calling Heather Scully at 457-2983.

(See articles in this week's paper highlighting the gala production.)

Haliburton Highlands Detachment

July 1 marks change to county police services

by Jerry Grozelle

Haliburton County will have its own stand-alone police force beginning on July 1, if the eight municipalities that will be served by the new detachment agree to the additional cost of about $200,000.

Jim McMahon, chair of the Community Policing Advisory Committee, said the $200,000 represents the additional costs associated with a stand-alone detachment, which will require personnel who had previously been shared by the Minden/Coboconk offices.

Construction has been moving ahead at the Haliburton Hospital. The block walls are now in place and the roof is on most of the new building which will house the long-term care portion of the facility. Work has started on the interiors and the installation of windows. When this portion of the building is completed, it will serve as the hospital while renovations are carried out in the existing building.

Beech Lake residents concerned about increased bear sightings

If you go down to the woods today, you may be in for a big surprise, as bears have become a nuisance in the Highlands.

Several accounts of bears knocking over bird feeders and even breaking into a cabin have been reported in Stanhope Township, and according to the Ministry of Natural Resources, there have been sightings in other areas.

A trap has been set up in the Beech Lake area, in order to capture one or two bears that have been causing damage between Beech Lake and Echo Bay on Boshkung Lake. According to the MNR, most of the incidents were simply tipped bird feeders, but on one occasion, a bear ripped through a screen window and tore the door off a refrigerator in order to munch on its contents. Some of the local cottagers have posted signs nearby to warn visitors about the bears.

MNR technician Bart Hilhorst, has been following the bear situation for three years now, and feels that this year has definitely seen an increase in nuisance bears. Hilhorst believes that this is because of the relatively dry winter and lack of new growth due to the dry hot conditions of the spring. He hopes that with the recent rains, vegetation will grow at a faster rate, giving the bears a more sustainable diet.

According to Hilhorst, garbage is the biggest attraction, as many people leave their garbage cans in the open. He recommends putting cans in the house or garage, or locked away in some fashion. "You've got to get rid of the garbage," said Hilhorst. He also noted that bears enjoy a fresh compost heap as well as bird seed and hummingbird nectar.

He warned that although you can discourage a bear by banging some pots and pans, or making any other loud noise, you should never chase or corner a bear. "The last thing you want to do is make a bear feel trapped," he said.

If a bear is spotted, Hilhorst asks that people call the ministry. "That gives me an idea of what's going on in the county," said Hilhorst.

Police probe collision

Police divers continued the investigation Sunday into a boating collision Saturday night on Gull Lake which resulted in injuries to four people.

According to the police report, a boat, traveling without lights, was struck by a power boat being driven by a father with his two children on board. The collision occurred at 11 p.m.

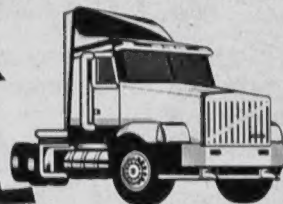

All of the injured were taken to Minden Hospital. Sean Sullivan, 20, of Markham was subsequently airlifted to Sunnybrook Hospital in Toronto. Details regarding the conditions of the others involved were not available at press time.

A big sound from young voices

by Ariel White

A desire to share the joy of singing with their children has resulted in the gift of music for children throughout the county and delighted many listeners over the past three years.

Lauren McInnes and Lorelyn Morgan came up with the idea some eight years ago. They wanted to create an environment where children would not only expand their knowledge of music, but grow in friendship.

The two women were looking for a creative environment for their young children as they grew older. "This is not a typical activity in Haliburton County. It's not hockey or figure skating," said Lorelyn.

Both brought extensive musical backgrounds to the task. McInnes and Morgan felt that a choir would be ideal, but didn't have time to see it through, until a few years ago. "She (McInnes) really took the bull by the horns," said Morgan. "She should definitely get the credit for doing the leg work and making that leap of faith."

In the beginning, the children's choir met after school at J. D. Hodgson Elementary School. A year later, the choir moved its studies to the Haliburton United Church and began practicing on Saturday mornings. Anyone who knows the connection between Saturday morning television and children will realize that only the most dedicated young songster would give up Saturday morning cartoons to sing in a church hall. "We have a group of kids that want to be here. They are a great group," said Lorelyn.

The choir usually performs a few times throughout the year, with a final concert, the Spring Sing, at the end of its season.

The 24 members range in age from 6 and a half (Lorelyn Morgan's daughter) to 14. They sing a variety of musical pieces, most in four part harmony, generally written or arranged specifically for a children's choir. Language is never a barrier when it comes to song. The choir has sung in numerous languages. Their participation in the Northern Lights Pavilion Gala will include three pieces, one which will be sung in the South African language of Zulu, another in Hebrew and one in English.

Although the choir does a number of public performances, according to Lorelyn, "The intent is the development of the musical focus." She said that now that the children have become involved with the choir, they have gone on to explore other musical ventures, such as private lessons and instrumental music. With each new step one of the members takes, she points out, "the whole ability level of the choir is raised."

Part of the development of the group has also been to hear other choirs perform. Thanks to donations from parents and others, the choir has travelled to Peterborough to hear the Children's Choir, the Peterborough Symphony Orchestra and are now planning a visit to Orillia to take in the musical Annie.

As those who will hear the choir this week will see, the partnership of Lauren McInnes and Lorelyn Morgan, has produced a strong vocal group, one which should be proud of its own achievements and can represent the Highlands admirably. And, for the directors, the underlying goals appear to have been achieved because the children have fun making music.

Gala offers rare opportunity for Barrie Wood

For professional actor, singer and dancer Barrie Wood, it was a chance to do what most of us take for granted.

Barrie, the director of the Northern Lights Overture, the gala for the opening of the county's new theatre, is working close to home and family. He just completed a year-long engagement with the national touring company of Beauty and the Beast.

His acting resume lists a large number of popular Broadway productions in addition to Beauty, including Jack and the Beanstalk, Tommy, Crazy for You, Annie, and Cats among others. His latest run ended earlier this spring and he was not scheduled to be back with the Walt Disney production until August, so when the opportunity arose to direct the gala opening he jumped at it. "When I heard of plans to mount this production for the opening of the Northern Lights Performing Art Pavilion, I wanted to do it," he stated emphatically.

As a stage professional, work is rarely found close to home especially when that home is in the Haliburton Highlands. The big shows are mounted in five or six large centres across North America or in a variety of smaller cities where touring companies drop by for a limited engagement and then move on to the next venue. The opportunity to spend most of the summer at home and work with local performers had obvious appeal for someone who spends a great deal of his life on the road.

Barrie is familiar with the Haliburton Highlands theatre scene. He assisted with the choreography of the 1994 production of Camelot and has, over the years, been a source of informal advice for other productions in the county.

He is excited about the opening gala. "I have never directed a show of this magnitude before," he said. Naturally, as a performer he has enjoyed an intimate perspective on how a show comes together, but he has never had complete responsibility for a show of this size.

Drawing on performing arts groups from throughout the Highlands, the Northern Lights Overture has a cast of 200. Including the crew and those involved in the pre-show preparations pushes the count past 226, the number of seats in the new theatre. "It has been demanding to pull all this together. Logistically, moving that many people has been challenging, but I think it has all come together nicely."

The work started on the program last winter when the concept of a show featuring performing arts talent from across the county was conceived. A call went out inviting groups who wanted to be a part of the show. From that original pool of talent, Barrie's challenge was to stitch together a production that, in his vision, would be fast paced, entertaining and representative of the variety of talent in the Highlands.

The Northern Lights Overture is just that. The program of performers include: the Haliburton Highlands Brass Quintet; the Tink Brothers fiddle duet; the Haliburton Twirler square dancers; Haliburton County Children's Choir; excerpts from Highlands Little Theatre musicals Camelot and Brigadoon; a number by the Haliburton Highlands Dance Company; Messiah Choir; a vignette from the Little Theatre production of the Importance of Being Earnest; the Highlands Wind Symphony; the Gentlemen of Song; the Highland Dancers and the Scottish Country Dancers; HHSS Red Hawk Theatre players; a piano duet by Lauren McInnes and Melissa Stephens; a company of actors, singers and dancers specially brought together for this performance as well as a six member pit orchestra. The Haliburton Flute Choir will be playing in the lobby and at the reception following the show and the Silver Flutes Marching Band will parade to the theatre entrance before every performance. Barrie and his wife Lorelyn Morgan are also part of the program, performing a Gershwin medley.

To help weave the production together, Barrie has written a script for a four person group of players who appear from time to time during the performance. "They are loosely based on the characters in the play Waiting for Godot," he explained. "They are nameless, unidentifiable individuals who, I guess,

represent all performers. They are wandering, looking for a place to perform." As they appear, they touch on the past and bring the audience with them to the present. The players represent the search for a

Curtain up...light the lights

Editorial

A standing ovation is in order for the new Northern Lights Performing Arts Pavilion. The facility will have its official opening this week and it is an excellent resource for the Highlands.

We have had an opportunity to see the new theatre. Anyone who has sat through a performance of any length in the old theatre will be more than ecstatic. First and foremost, the comfort level has increased one hundred fold. Gone are the wooden stack chairs that passed for seats in the former theatre. Padded seats with lots of leg room are the order of the day. The seats are set on rising tiers, one row to a tier, all but guaranteeing excellent sight lines to the stage. The seats have also been staggered so the patrons in the next row, even if they weren't tall enough, will not be blocking one's view. Despite the fact that the last row of seats is almost as far back as the rear wall of the old theatre, there is still a feeling of intimacy with the stage and the action taking place there. We have yet to experience the acoustics, especially with a sound absorbing full house, but initial indications are they are good and certainly better than what was experienced in the former theatre.

While the theatre is a delight, we offer our kudos this week to those who had the vision and saw it through to completion. Two years ago few of the many people involved in getting this facility built would have believed it could be possible. The roadblocks seemed impassable and the amount of public money required, beyond the reach of the community. It is a testament to the people who believed in the dream, that the community shared it as well. Almost every seat in the theatre bears a plaque, and indication that some individual or business shared the vision of the performing arts community and willingly endowed a seat. (There are still a few "unclaimed" seats, for those who may wish to be a part of this effort.)

So, hats off to those who saw it through to completion and those who came forward to help with finances, influence and a positive attitude. As will be demonstrated this week during the four gala opening performances, the theatre is a place where participants in all aspects of the performing arts and from across the Highlands should feel comfortable. This is a theatre for all to enjoy, both on stage and in those, oh so comfortable, seats.

A time to examine procedures

Editor:

I grew up during an era when respect was shown and given to certain positions or people in the community. It was a double edged sword in the sense that those given respect had to maintain or continue to earn it. We said Sir or Madam to our elders. We respected, among others, the local pharmacist, doctor, dentist, elected officials and men of the cloth.

These people offered services to the community that we all felt were important. The penalty for not according this respect was usually a cuff to the back of the head by our parents. Values today certainly seem to have changed. In a lot of cases, it is no longer fashionable for children to show respect for their parents or teachers, nor municipal employees to show respect for elected officials.

What happens when all the employees feel they are management? Who establishes objectives and accountability? Who prepares and conducts personnel reviews to let employees know how they are doing or what is expected of them? Who oversees and administers the checks and balances of a normal business operation? Who protects the money and rights of the taxpayers?

Large municipalities hire chief administrative officers to perform these functions. But, who performs these duties in small municipalities? The answer seems to be nobody for some of the above items in LDL. By choosing to ignore important business practices and not working with employees, the employees think that they run the municipality. My local municipal council is not, in my opinion, doing the job they were elected to do.

We have some good employees and for the most part they do a good job.

But, they need to be reminded that as employees they are expected to be accountable to council. This is no different than if they worked for any other large employer. Normal business practices need to be put in place and personnel reviews need to be done to let each person know what is expected of him and how they are performing.

I have heard it said that some people don't think we should be running a Bay Street office. Why not? I would remind those people that the LDL is probably one of the largest employers in the municipality and certainly should be run as an efficient accountable office. Again I will say, maybe it is time people came out and saw how the affairs of council are being conducted.

A concerned taxpayer.

Happy and confident about the quality of care

Editor:

I am writing regarding Kathy Sutcliffe's letter printed in your paper on June 7.

I would just like to say that Kathy does indeed provide a safe, loving, happy environment for the children she takes care of. I happen to know this for a fact as she takes care of my three year-old daughter from time to time. My daughter adores Kathy and when she cannot go there, always asks when she gets to go to "Kaddies" house again. Kathy treats the children in her care as if they were truly her own.

To the individuals who have nothing better to do than spread rumours I say "get a life".

To Kathy,

I want to encourage you to keep up the good work, you are doing an excellent job.

Experience rather than emotion

Editor:

Re: Pathfinders and firearms

In the matter of this thorny issue, I tend to agree with Stu Brandon. There are an awful lot of other activities in our daily lives which can, and often do lead to grievous bodily harm both by accident and by intent.

One should be aware that the Rangers (girls up to 18+/-) were also given the opportunity to participate in this experience. As a parent, I was not upset that my girls had a chance to take part.

If one were to poll the girls following their experience, I'd wager to say that several may develop a dislike of sport shooting (targets on a range), some, while probably enjoying the occasion, will remain indifferent in the long term, and one or two will possibly take an interest in it.

Regardless of which way they feel on the issue, these girls will all have a tremendous advantage over many in the anti-gun lobby, in that they will be able to base their opinions on a personal experience and the training they received, rather than just on emotion.

Finally, I am surprised in this age of "political correctitudes" that someone hasn't yet taken issue with the fact that these two girls' groups bear the same titles as several elite military units!

Dave Ferguson,
Minden

Editor:

I am writing in response to Kathy Sutcliffe's letter in last week's Times. Kathy has been my child care provider for the past three years. I have been completely satisfied with the quality of care that she has always provided. My children all adore her and have always enjoyed the time spent in her home. I have always felt that my children were very safe and well cared for by Kathy.

I find it very disturbing that anyone could receive pleasure by starting such malicious and entirely groundless rumours. I personally would not hesitate to recommend Kathy's services to anyone who's seeking a caregiver.

One final word to the person(s) circulating these rumours, you are entitled to your opinion, you are also entitled to keep it to yourself, especially when it hurts someone.

Music from the prehistoric era

Do you still listen to music on tape cassettes? Me too.

That makes both of us cultural dinosaurs. Cassettes aren't quite as obsolete as Newfoundland cod, the Avro Arrow and the federal Progressive Conservatives - but they're close.

According to a recent study published in the Globe and Mail, Canadians bought just a little over eight million pre-recorded music cassettes last year. That's one-fifth the number of cassettes that were bought in 1985.

Pardon me for ranting, but this is exactly what ticks me off about modern technology. I happen to feel quit comfy with music on cassettes. I have a cassette player in the dashboard of my car which nicely gets me through traffic jams and long, boring commutes. I have a cassette player in my bedroom. And in my workshop. I even have one of those Walkman things so that I can listen to music the people around me probably don't want to listen to.

This is what modern technology always does to me. I just get nicely settled in with some piece of advanced electronic wizardry and zoom! - the whole world morphs on to another plane. Remember MS-DOS? That was the computer cyberbabble language that you absolutely had to learn ten years ago if you wanted to use a computer. I learned it. It cost me a fortune in Tylenol and ulcer medicine, but I learned it.

Then along came Bill Gates and Windows. Overnight, MS-DOS became as useful as a BA in conversational Etruscan.

I'd like to write off the cassettes demise as a mere case of media hysteria, but I know better. I've been trying to find a store that still sells music on cassettes. There's a huge Virgin Records store a few blocks from where I work. It has three floors of CDs, Videos...and DVDs.

Whatever the hell they are.

Oh yes, and if you ask a clerk who's worked there for a while, he or she might be able to direct you to the shabby little four foot by six foot rack at the back of the basement where they keep the last of their music-on-cassette stock.

Mostly Lawrence Welks Polka Party and The Best of Milli Vanilli as far as I could tell. All available on Compact Disc, of course. Only problem is, I don't have CD players in my car, my workshop, my bedroom or on my hip. Which means I will need to buy a whole lot of new equipment if I want to stay even close to the crest of the technological wave. Which, of course, is the whole point...to keep stupid, unquestioning slobs like you and me shelling out money for new 'innovations' that nobody really needs. You know the very best place to buy pre-recorded music - cassettes these days? Garage sales. That's where you'll find them. Right next to the electric typewriters, the Cabbage Patch Kids and the Swiss Fondue sets. One of my favourite poets W.H. Auden, once said: "What the mass media offer...is intended to be consumed like food, forgotten and replaced by a new dish." Smart guy, Auden. He died in 1973. Just about the time music cassettes were becoming popular.

Province should help allocate windfall

Editor:

At the last Victoria County finance committee meeting, the Reeves debated where $400,000 and $552,000 just received from the Province's Special Circumstances Fund would be allocated. Councillor Ross Radway (a 25 year member) made a motion to give it back to the taxpayers. Mr. Radway suggested "If we don't, it will get lost in the shuffle."

Guess what?

His motion was defeated! The Warden wanted the $952,000 to be put into reserves for possible future amalgamation and or waste management costs. The issue was shelved for a future meeting.

At the April County Council meeting, $2.8 million was given to the commercial/industrial/multi-residential taxpayers to lighten the burden of a substantial tax increase due to the claw back of Bill 79. A few days later the Town of Lindsay received another $950,000 from this wonderful special circumstances fund for the same purpose. It would appear that some county councillors are not listening close enough to Lindsay, Deputy Reeve Sal Polito's "crying towel" for the county to share the wealth. I now wonder if the Town of Lindsay will be prepared to share this windfall?

It would make a little more sense if the province would take a look at the entire situation in Victoria County and specify where these new found dollars should be spent. It is just another example, similar to the amalgamation debacle, which can only be solved with Provincial intervention.

At the same meeting a presentation was made by Environics Research Group: commonly known as pollsters. It would appear that the county would like to hear what you the taxpayer thinks of the services you now receive and what you would like in the future. At a cost of between $20,000 and $30,000 when we have close to one hundred elected municipal politicians who are supposed to know their constituents concerns and wishes.

At the same meeting council decided to send out, at a cost of about $6000, a sticker for your phone, when it is necessary to call 911. The sticker will give your current address as it relates to the new 911 number on your property. A good idea which will assist in panic emergencies.

At a recent waste management meeting, which lasted one whole hour, half of which was in a closed meeting, the reeves who have opposed the county taking over the entire waste process, were given the opportunity to continue using their employees until the county is prepared to implement the new system. Any extra costs will be incurred by the local municipality not the county.

Take a close look girls and boys, at the local level.

John Huke,
Somerville.

Hot competition

Skateboarders gathered at the Minden Skateboard Park for the first of what is hoped to become an annual competition at the Minden facility. Competitors braved the hot, humid weather to show their skills. Local skater Brad Gauley is seen here demonstrating his techniques.

HOSPITAL HELPER: Matthew Besner presented Hospital Capital Campaign vice chair Gord Monk with a cheque for $100, part of the proceeds from the third annual David Besner Memorial Baseball Tournament held in Minden June 5.

Did you know Sir Francis Drake was a lawn bowler?

by Jim Hindle

Lawn bowling has been around for centuries, in fact, history books relate that in 1588, Sir Francis Drake, the famous English fleet commander, was lawn bowling when a messenger advised him that the Spanish Armada had been spotted entering the English Channel. Sir Francis Drake is reported to have said: "The Spanish can wait, I must finish my game of bowls."

The first lawn bowls were made from very hard wood and were turned on a lathe to an elliptical shape, with slightly more material shaved off one side so the bowls would curve when rolled. Many people mistakenly believe the curving was due to weights.

Over the years, wooden bowls were replaced by bakelite or other plastic materials which were more permanent. All bowls have a large disc on one side and a smaller disc on the other side, which are usually used for the owner's identification initials. In order to know which way the bowl will curve, the smaller disc always faces toward the inside of the curve.

Games are played with four members on each team (quads) using two bowls each; three members on each team (trebles) with three bowls each; or two members on each team (pairs), using four bowls each.

Bowling can be fun and can also become a game of skill for everyone. So come on out and try it. You'll like it!

OPP investigate numerous break-ins

The following report was compiled by the Minden/Coboconk Detachment of the Ontario Provincial Police

On June 4, police investigated a break-in at a cottage on Green Lake in Guilford Township. A side door had been forced open and some bottles of liquor and tools were stolen.

The same day, police investigated the theft of a concrete saw from the building site of the Haliburton Hospital on County Road one in Haliburton Village.

OPP also investigated the theft of a trailer from Moore Lake in Lutterworth Township. The investigation revealed that the 4X8 foot white trailer had been taken sometime after June 2.

A break-in occurred at a cottage on Ross Point Road, Loon Lake in Dysart Township. The investigation revealed that the incident had occurred sometime after the Victoria Day Weekend. Stolen from the cottage were a television, a VCR and some compact discs.

The Rails End Gallery in Haliburton Village was broken into. Police investigated on June 4, and found that a window was smashed and the door found insecure. No items were taken.

On June 5, OPP investigated a theft at a cottage on Shadow Lake road 20 in Somerville Township. Stolen were some tools, some beer, a tool box, and some fishing equipment.

A theft of fishing gear was investigated the same day on Clear Bay Road in Galway Township. Stolen from a fishing boat were a Minn Kota electric motor, two Lowrance fishfinders and four life jackets.

WALK FOR WATER: Participants in the June 5 HAVE Walk For Water were treated royally as piper Earl Cooper escorted them to the starting line. The 40 walkers raised more than $10,000 for the Help a Village Effort, a group which raises funds to ensure that villages in areas such as The Gambia have potable drinking water.

Saturday wasn't a good day for laying concrete blocks in the sweltering heat. But Lions Club volunteers spent from 7 a.m. to mid afternoon working on the new grandstand foundation at the Minden Fairgrounds. Daryl Moore is seen here with trowel in hand early in the day. Work was halted in the afternoon because of the intense heat. Workers were planning to return at 5 p.m. Sunday to finish the job, weather permitting.

SEAT SPONSOR: Toronto Dominion Bank manager Joanne Camelon presented Dave Gray of the Performing Arts Society with a cheque to cover the sponsorship of one of the seats in the new Northern Lights Performing Arts Pavilion at HHSS. The theatre, which opens this week, offered seat sponsorships to help fund the public portion of the renovations. According to Caryl Moulton, sponsor co-ordinator, there are still a few seats available for those wishing to make a donation. The cost of a seat endowment is $750. The contribution of donors is acknowledged with a plaque on the arm of the seat.

theatre for the Highlands and through them the audience experiences the struggle which has brought the performing arts to finally see the dream become a reality.

The show opens with a musical number "Stage Lights". The song was written by a friend of Barrie's, David Walden, who has allowed him to alter some of the lyrics to suit the Highlands locale.

The closing number, "Applause Applause", is from the Broadway musical called, naturally, Applause. As any grand finale should, this number will leave the audience breathless. It starts with the voice of a single child and builds, adding harmonies and singers until all 200 performers are on stage singing their hearts out. It is a number worthy of the opening of the new Northern Lights Performing Arts Pavilion.

Looking around the theatre as a group of players works through a scene on the stage, Barrie says, "This theatre can only bode well for the future of performing arts in the Highlands. Improved facilities will raise the calibre of the productions. This is great."

Obviously excited with the prospect of seeing the production finally take place, Barrie describes his feeling this way. "This is the most exciting time in the life of any production of this size. It is like a train hurtling down the tracks at full speed. There is no way to stop it, no way to turn it, it's just a matter of bringing it into the station on time and in one piece."

It can also be added that the train he is referring to is all but full. Late last week the 'sold out' signs went up over the Thursday, Friday and Saturday night performances and the tickets for the Sunday matinee were disappearing rapidly. So if you would like to take an interesting ride through the world of the performing arts in the Highlands, it is time to get on board.

1999 police cost estimate lower than 1998 actual cost

The Ontario Provincial Police will provide the police services, which will include one staff sergeant, four sergeants, 24 constables, two clerical positions and one cadet. The minimum standard, as defined by the OPP, is 22 constables, but the county wants two additional officers. The extra cost for the two additional officers will be the county's responsibility.

McMahon pointed out that the provincial government will fund half the cost of enhanced services, including the two additional constables. He also noted that the per-household cost has been capped at $90, so Haliburton County taxpayers won't be hit with higher tax bills.

The new OPP detachment, based in Minden, will be called the Haliburton Highlands Detachment. It will serve Haliburton County, with the exception of Bicroft and Cardiff Townships. Those two municipalities will continue to get their police services from the Bancroft OPP. Cruisers will sport the new name as soon as the change becomes official.

Effective July 1, the Haliburton Highlands Detachment will no longer be responsible for policing Victoria County municipalities which are currently policed by the Minden/Coboconk Detachment. Those municipalities will be realigned with the Lindsay OPP.

All eight municipalities must agree, by resolution, to share the funding for the two additional officers. The two constables will be assigned when the funding is verified.

Wherever possible, and taking into account the absence of funding for transfer expenses, the sergeants and constables assigned to the Haliburton Highlands Detachment are to reside in Haliburton County.

OPP and County officials held interviews Friday with five prospective candidates for the staff sergeant position. They have submitted their recommendation to the OPP District Headquarters and the appointment is expected early this week.

The 1999 estimated total cost for policing the eight municipalities of Haliburton County is $1,473,829, plus $200,000 for the stand-alone detachment. The cost of two additional constables will be added to the total.

McMahon said the committee has applied for 50 per cent funding for additional constables through the Community Partnership Program of the provincial government. If that funding comes through, McMahon estimated the cost to be between $50,000 and $75,000, including wages and benefits, as the county's share of the cost for the additional officers.

Two additional officers will increase the police presence. It has been noted that actually seeing police officers on patrol is very important to the public.

Even with the maximum total of $1,748,829, the 1999 estimate is lower than the actual charges for 1998, which were $1,867,662.

McMahon said that falls within the $90 per household cap.

During the Anson, Hindon and Minden council meeting Thursday, Councillor Daryl Moore raised the question, "What about say for pay? How much say will we have without a contract?" Deputy-Reeve Jerry Rome, who represents Anson, Hindon and Minden on the Community Policing Advisory Committee, noted that CPAC can make recommendations.

McMahon explained that if the committee makes recommendations and the staff sergeant doesn't act on them, he would have to have a good reason not to.

"The OPP is listening to the municipalities. Where else have you seen two county representatives sit in on the interview process for a staff sergeant position?" McMahon said. He and Rome participated in the interview process.

If the county opted for a contract with the OPP for services, it would be locked in for five years. A Police Commission would have to be elected or appointed, which would be an additional cost.

McMahon said the cost of contracted police services would be $2,424,873, which is $557,211 more than non-contracted services.

The Friendly Hospitality People

Eco-Tourism comes to northern Victoria County

by Jerry Grozelle

After two years in the planning stages and months of clearing trails, preparing campsites and hauling boats to remote lakes, Natural Wilderness Retreat is open for business. Based in the northern part of Laxton Township, near Norland, the new business is owned and operated by Wayne and Alma Bailey.

Natural Wilderness Retreat is offering a variety of packages for people seeking an outdoors experience. Hiking, bird watching, wildlife photography, camping, backwoods tenting, mountain biking, fishing, canoe trips and blueberry picking day-trips are among the activities that are planned for this summer. Horseback and horse-drawn wagon rides are in the future plans.

"We can offer any kind of package," Wayne Bailey said.

Since this is an environmentally friendly business, Bailey said he will encourage catch and release fishing. But he wouldn't deny those who want the experience of a shore lunch of fresh fish.

Canoes and row boats will be available, but don't look for an outboard to push that boat around. Outboards are not an option.

The area covered by Natural Wilderness Retreat includes a portion of the northern lots of Laxton Township and several hundred acres in the south eastern corner of Digby Township. Some of the lakes that can be accessed by the trails include, Oak, Beech, Clear, Colburn, Red Boat and Cranberry. Oak and Beech are in Laxton and the others are in Digby.

A cabin is available for those who aren't quite as adventurous. It will accommodate six people.

If business goes according to plan, Bailey expects to hire four to 10 people to assist as guides and expedition leaders.

Natural Wilderness Retreat will be a four seasons operation.

"I will encourage as

(more on page 16)

Wayne and Alma Bailey sit in front of their computer. They plan to launch a web site in the near future to let the world know what is available for wilderness adventures in the area. The Norland area couple caters to outdoors enthusiasts who want to get away from the crowds for their back to nature experiences. Natural Wilderness Retreat encompasses their property in the north-east section of Laxton Township and several hundred acres of Crown land in the south-east part of Digby Township.

many winter activities as I possibly can," Wayne said.

Cross-country skiing, snowshoeing, sleigh rides and winter camping will be available. A trail will be groomed all winter to accommodate skiers and winter hikers.

"I'd like to organize a three or four day sled dog race," he said.

At this point, Wayne and Alma are open to clients tailoring their own packages to suit their tastes.

Alma noted that the Retreat will be available to boy scouts, girl guides and school groups, as well as other clubs and organizations interested in an outdoors experience.

"Eventually, we would like to conduct wilderness survival courses," she said.

The only time of year Wayne and Alma won't be accepting bookings is during the two weeks of the deer hunt in early November.

"It's unlimited what we can do," Wayne said.

The business is being advertised with flyers, which are being distributed as far afield as Germany and Ireland. Posters have been distributed locally and a web site is in the plan for the near future.

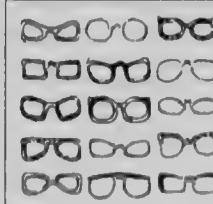

For more information about the services offered at Natural Wilderness Retreat, contact Wayne or Alma at 705-454-2404.

Reform MPs discussed politics in local riding

Two 27 year-old Members of Parliament from Alberta, Rob Anders and Rahim Jaffer, made a favourable impression in Haliburton and Victoria counties recently. The two Reform Party MPs were accompanied by Pat Dunn, who ran locally for the Reform Party in the last federal election.

A meet and greet session was held at The Moose, at the Wigamog Inn with about 25 people turning out to talk with the two MPs.

They asked the people what their concerns were and explained the Reform policy regarding those concerns.

The United Alternative was one topic of discussion. Anders and Jaffer didn't share the same vision of the UA. Anders said he voted against the proposal, saying that the question on the ballot was not specific enough to make him comfortable endorsing it.

Jaffer, on the other hand, voted in favour, saying that a favourable vote is only an endorsement to explore the option further.

"The UA direction is interesting," Jaffer said. "I don't see it as a trade-off. There are a lot of places where the United Alternative can work."

He also pointed out that further study may show that the UA is not a viable proposition, in which case it can be abandoned.

Regarding the Reform policies, Anders said, "I think Reform policies are on side with the way Canadians think. I feel good about the platform."

Communication is one area both MPs agreed could benefit from improvement. Instead of defending against opposition attacks, Anders said the party needs to be more aggressive about promoting its policies and ideas.

Leadership was also discussed. The audience was divided on the merits of keeping Preston Manning as leader. Some said he doesn't have a dynamic enough image to lead the party into a successful campaign in the next election.

Minden Resident Doug Campbell disagreed. "It would be a sad mistake to remove Manning as leader of the Reform Party," he said. "He's quiet, but he's a listener. He brought the party to official opposition status in 10 years. He's a thinker."

Jaffer agreed, saying, "Preston's vision is incredible."

Another topic was the idea of a flat tax, where everybody is taxed at the same rate and the basic tax exemption rate increased, giving more low income families relief from taxes.

The day after the meeting at The Moose, Anders toured the Haliburton Highlands Outdoors Association fish hatchery. Jaffer went to Lindsay and Fenelon Falls, where he talked with students from the three Victoria County high schools. The two MPs had hoped to meet and talk with students from Haliburton Highlands Secondary School, but organizers of the tour were told it was against school policy.

Officials from the three Victoria County high schools, however, welcomed the opportunity to allow the students to experience the Reform perspective and judge for themselves the merits of the party's policies.

MEET AND GREET: Rahim Jaffer, left, and Rob Anders were introduced to residents of Haliburton and Victoria Counties during recent visit to the area.

Business Profile

Gemini Electric Motor Service

Ensuring your electrical motors and gas engines are operating at peak condition just became a lot easier in Haliburton County.

On May 1, Gemini Electric Motor Service, operated by Dave Sadler, opened on Highway 118 in Stanhope Township. Dave has been repairing electrical motors and small gas engines for years. He worked with ITM Electric Motor Service in Scarborough for six years before moving to the Highlands. Dave was also employed at Jordan Electric Motors in Lindsay and has provided part-time services to clients in the Highlands since. With the opening of his business and new shop, Dave can now provide full time small engine and motor service to the Highlands.

Dave specializes in repairs to any electrically driven motors including generators, pumps, electric hand tools, and heavier power machines such as radial arm saws, planers and milling machines. He is also experienced in small gas engine repair including lawn mowers, chain saws and gas powered generators. If you are having trouble with the starter or alternator in the your vehicle, he can fix or replace it as well.

His work is trusted by professionals in the field. Many of the area's rental stores rely on Dave and his assistant Ted Howard to keep their equipment in top running condition. Likewise, local contractors have seen equipment downtime reduced by utilizing the only motor repair service right here in the county. Gemini has also been contracted by Sears Canada to carry out electric motor warranty and repair work.

Dave welcomes commercial and residential work and will even make a "house call" if the equipment is too big to move. "We also have a pick-up and delivery service for residents of Haliburton County," he commented.

Dave advises that regular maintenance of gas and electrical powered motors is the best way to avoid equipment failure, but when breakdowns occur or if the motors are operating inefficiently, Gemini Electric Motor Service is there to get it working again.

Gemini Electrical Motor Service is located on Highway 118 directly across from the Maple Lake Store, about halfway between Carnarvon and West Guilford.

Gemini Electric Motor Service is open seven days a week "...electric motors don't know what day of the week it is," he comments with a smile. The shop is open 8 a.m. to 8 p.m., convenient for those wishing to leave a motor for repairs or pick it up before or after work. If you have a starter, alternator, electric motor or small gas engine that has been giving you trouble, give Gemini a call today at (705) 754-2554 and let Dave fix it for you.

This is an advertising feature of The Times of Minden.

Dave Sadler has been repairing electric motors for years and now he does it from his new shop on Hwy. #118 directly across from Maple Lake Store. Gemini Electric Motor Service is the only service of this kind in the county and is already trusted by many of the local professionals in the field.

Young Eagles soar high again

by Ariel White

More than 100 children were soaring with the eagles June 5 and 6 at the Stanhope airport, thanks to some very dedicated volunteers and the blue skies of Mother Nature. The Young Eagles Program helped 110 children soar above the Highlands for free.

The sixth annual Young Eagles weekend was very successful, according to organizer Barry Hart. After six years, the Young Eagles Program has flown over 700 children out of the Stanhope Airport, as part of the Experimental Aircraft Association's goal to have flown one million children worldwide by the year 2003, the one hundredth anniversary of the Wright brothers flight. Worldwide, almost 500,000 children have been able to participate in the program.

Cassandra Lang and Brittaney McLean of Cambridge, took time away from the McLean's Beech Lake cottage to take a test flight over Stanhope. "I got to drive the plane. It was so fun," said Lang, who had never been in an aircraft before. Both hoped to return next year to ascend above the Highlands and look for their cottage through the clouds.

AIR BOUND: Cassandra Lang and Brittaney McLean of Cambridge prepare for take-off with pilot Barry Hart at last week's Young Eagles day at Stanhope Airport.

A mural for Wilberforce

The era of steam engines is being rekindled in a mural being painted on the side of the Monmouth Firehall in Wilberforce. Allen C. Higendorf, right, of Chatsworth, Ontario, was commissioned to complete the painting. The mural shows the IB & O train at the Wilberforce station circa 1945. The railway is long gone (the rail bed is the base on which the Essonville Line road was built), but memories of that era will be sustained now that the painting is done. The mural was funded by public subscription.

Water levels rise with recent rains

The following report was issued by the Trent Severn Waterway on June 8

The Haliburton Lakes rose nicely with, recent precipitation, reaching 89.5 per cent on June 7. This was a welcome rise and brought 1999 average levels up above 1998 for that date by about 1.6 per cent.

The Kawarthas rose to peak at 110 per cent on June 3. This was reduced to about 104 per cent of summer level by June 8. Too much surplus threatens shorelines and safe boating, so this has been reduced since last week.

Flow reductions are underway to hold the lakes along the canal route near their seasonal normals.

Lake Simcoe-Couchiching also showed signs of small recovery, being up about five centimetres and now only about 15 centimetres below full level.

Minden Sparks and Guides enjoy another successful year

--submitted--

First Minden Sparks

Over the past month we have been enjoying the good weather and venturing out of doors. We have gone on a nature walk around the baseball diamond and we talked about the birds, the plants, and the animals that we saw along the way.

Also we had a pizza picnic, Thank you Godfathers. At our picnic we enjoyed some water games and played on the climbers in the park. Our birthday box was once again opened for the last three girls in our unit. Our banquet was lots of fun there was good food, good friends, and a good time had by all.

I am very pleased to announce that Jessica Carrell, Kelsey Crowe, Victoria Fortner, Shelby Moore, and Josselyn Allison all sparkled up to Brownies. I am very proud of them all. To all our Pathfinder helpers and my two Guides, a very heart felt thank you, you made my year a little bit easier and the girls really loved having you. Thanks again. I look forward to Sparks starting again in September and meeting all the new smiling faces.

First Minden Girl Guides

We have been so busy over the last month, I don't know where to start. One of our most exciting visitors this year was a grade 12-exchange student from France. Chloe came to one of our meetings and spoke to us about some of the similarities and some of the differences between our two countries and about the Girl Guides in her country.

We have also been studying birds in our unit, and we had a most interesting visitor. Mr. Don Smith graciously came and showed us some of his slides that he has been taking and collecting for many years. The girls were in awe over how close he was able to

Guide year ends

As a community project we went for a nature hike on the trail from the arena to the museum and back and picked up some of the garbage along the way. On May 11 we had our banquet. Julie Snell, Kelly Lawr, and Amanda Davis flew up to Pathfinders. These three have been a joy to have in our unit and we know they will enjoy their Pathfinder experiences.

After the banquet we continued our meetings to get ready for our year end District camp. The Haliburton Guides, the Minden Guides and the Minden Pathfinders got together at the Bathe residence the first weekend in June to have a spring camp. We called our camp a third world camp. Thirty two girls attended camp and learned and experienced some of the hardships that refugees face when being forced out of their homes, as well as some of the hazards they face trying to get to safety. They experienced a scavenger hunt that taught them about diseases and immunization. They even had to cross a minefield (made up of other Guides) walking with their eyes closed and someone giving directions. Not too many of them "survived".

We all learned some new songs and watched some inventive skits. The Pathfinders went around and helped wherever needed. Over all we had an absolutely fabulous weekend. All the girls came away with new friends, and big smiles. As an added bonus to this camp the girls were invited one group at a time to visit Mr. Bathe to view his model trains. They were breathtaking. The girls asked him how long he had been working on this project and how long he had been interested in this hobby. We send a special thank you to the Bathe family for the use of their property for our camp, and for all the little things they did.

Over all it has been a very busy year. Good luck to the three that have moved on in their guiding adventure, and we look forward to seeing the rest of the girls back in September along with some new faces. Have a great summer.

ASES Job shadow day

by April Austen and Chelsea Dunn

Grade eight job shadowing took place once again in the Minden area. The students all picked places where they would like to work or to find out what their parents do at work.

Larry Renyolds, a student in grade eight at Archie Stouffer Elementary School, was job shadowing at the Minden Home Hardware store. When we (April Austen and Chelsea Dunn) talked to him, he was enjoying himself very much, and after he gets out of school he would like to work in that field of work.

We also talked to Julie Bittner at Photo Solutions in Minden. She had learned a lot about digital processing and how to develop pictures. She was having a lot of fun and would like to work here in the future. Some of the other A.S.E.S students we talked to were Marley Viney at Stedmans and Taylor Gardener at Jasper's Bar and Grill. All of these students we talked to were enjoying themselves and learning a lot about the working world.

Marley Viney, top, is working at Stedmans on Friday June 11. Here, she is helping with the lottery tickets. Taylor Gardener, left, is slicing tomatoes at Jasper's Bar and Grill in the kitchen. These students were participating in the Job shadowing program.

O'Reilly backs consecutive terms for multiple murderers

John O'Reilly, Member of Parliament for Haliburton-Victoria-Brock voted in support of a bill that would allow judges the opportunity to sentence multiple murderers and rapists to consecutive sentences.

"There are people in our communities who are just beyond comprehension and rehabilitation. Their crime is such that society says that they have lost their freedom for their entire lives. For example Paul Bernardo, who was convicted of kidnapping, raping and killing two teenaged girls, and B.C. multiple child-killer and rapist Clifford Olson would have both received additional life sentences. Society is a better off as a result of this bill," stated Mr. O'Reilly.

The bill overwhelmingly passed third reading in the House of Commons last week 118-40. The legislation gives judges the option of handing down up to two consecutive life sentences, with no chance of parole for 50 years, to multiple or serial killers. Serial rapists would face consecutive sentences up to a maximum of 50 years, compared with the current maximum of 10 years, depending on the number of victims and crimes.

Kids car safety video available

Road trips are a fact of life for many Canadian families in the summer. Keeping children safe in the car or minivan is a priority. This means making sure parents and caregivers know about the many different types of child restraints that are available, and how to use them properly.

Studies show that up to one third of Canadian children are not properly restrained while travelling in motor vehicles. As a result, nearly 10,000 children are injured each year. This sad statistic can be turned around, if Canadians choose the right type of restraints for their children and know how to install them correctly.

The Federal government wants to make sure that Canadians know as much as possible about car restraints and child safety. This is why we put together a new video called Car Time: 1-2-3-4, which is available to all Canadians free of charge. The video addresses parents' questions and concerns about child restraints and their proper use. It provides valuable information about child safety in motor vehicles, from birth through the age of twelve. There's also a special Car Time 1-2-3-4 web site, with a section that's written especially for young passengers. The Car Time web site is part of Transport Canada's Road Safety Program web site, which offers a wealth of information on topics including vehicle recalls, fuel consumption and other road safety issues, such as air bags and anti-lock brakes.

Launched by Transport Canada, the Car Time video has been sponsored by several departments including Health Canada and Agriculture and Agri-Food Canada, as well as by the Canadian Automobile Association (CAA), and the Canadian Association of Chiefs of Police. The Car Time: 1-2-3-4 initiative builds on our government's past efforts to improve Canadians' understanding of motor vehicle safety issues. In 1997, we released a similar video called Car Time: A New Attitude on Board. This video highlighted the benefits and risks associated with air bags.

Nobody wants a car ride to end in tragedy. We have the tools to help Canadians make car travel safer for their children. Common sense plus good habits can make all the difference.

Information about the Car Time: 1-2-3-4 program and video, as well as other motor vehicle safety information, is available through the Transport Canada Road Safety Program web site at <<http://www.tc.gc.ca/roadsafety>>, or by calling (toll-free) 1-800-333-0371.

Gardeners host weekly tea

We're back! And a big hello to everyone.

Must begin right away and catch you up on our news of the last couple of weeks. First of all, we all want to say we miss Janet Donnelly. We hope she will be back with us soon. In the meantime we welcome Kelly Harpley to the activities department.

Our Birthday Tea on May 27th went very well. The Minden Horticulture Ladies hosted and what a crowd we had. All the birthday celebrants were on hand to enjoy their birthday cake. Our thanks to the ladies.

The following afternoon, the Grandfathers were here for our Happy Hour. That was a fun time for all. On Sunday May 30 many of us enjoyed having Olive and Weldon McPhail visit with us for "Song and Praise". We send our thanks to them for taking time out to be with us.

We were saddened to hear of the death of Everett Paull. Our sympathy to his family and friends. Special thoughts are with his two sisters here in our home, Alice Prentice and Laura Upton. Monday afternoon a group of us gathered with Linda to join in a "Victoria Quiz". This was a lot of fun as we discussed and tried to guess answers to questions. All related to the Victorian era. Afterwards we thoroughly enjoyed homemade English scones with raspberry jam and whipped cream delicious food and great exercise for our brains.

Next morning we enjoyed Barbara Trociewicz for morning Chapel. Wednesday evening the Hillbillies were here for our Pub Night. This evening was very much enjoyed and we thank them for coming and bringing their old time country music with them. The following day, of course, was Election Day and our auditorium was occupied for voting. Instead of our later Tea Party we gathered in the main lounge and enjoyed coffee and doughnuts. We were fortunate enough to have Jack and Ruth Worthington here to entertain us while we tucked into our goodies. We were also very pleased to see our friend Barbara pop in for a visit. It was great to see her so happy and looking so well. She is settling in with her new life and we continue to wish her the very best.

Friday afternoon June 4th the Hyland Rover headed into the countryside for a short spin. It travelled the Ingoldsby area and before we headed back home we stopped off for our ice cream treat. We certainly had a great day for it.

Over that weekend we enjoyed bingo with Kelly and on Sunday Reverend Everall was here for our Chapel Service. John Burgess was also here as he is on most Sundays for his visitations. Our week began with the visit of the Salvation Army, which we always look forward to. Our thanks to them for coming. The following morning Pastor Dan Millard was here for our Chapel Service. Later that afternoon we attended our monthly Diners' Club meeting. Kim was not available so Nancy and Kelly joined us. We had lots of fun talking about early fruits and vegetables and choosing our next dinner of the month.

Wednesday evening of course was our Pub Night and the Norland Hillbillies were here once again to entertain us. We send our thanks to them. Now we are back to Thursday and almost caught up on our news.

Today our Tea Party is scheduled to be hosted by St. Peter's Anglican Church, Maple Lake. We have one more birthday in June to celebrate; Edith Russell will be celebrating on June 21. A Happy Birthday to her.

We said goodbye to Bev Upton recently. Bev has been working for Hyland Crest since April of 1991. She will be very much missed by everyone, staff, residents, family members and volunteers. Enjoy your retirement Bev, you deserve it. We welcome Al Eskelin who is now our new office co-ordinator. We hope you will be happy working with us.

Mark your calendars now! Residents council will be holding a "Treasures N' Such" sale on Thursday, July 1 9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. Lots of good stuff - a crafters paradise. Come on out and support us. All proceeds will go to Residents' Council. When you are attending Canada Day activities downtown, please remember us and swing on over and take a browse, then buy, buy, buy. The sale will be held in our auditorium.

A special weekend is happening for Lola Prentice. She will not only be celebrating her 95th birthday with her family and friends but will be attending the wedding of her first great grandson, Cameron Berry on Saturday, June 12. We will have to get a star report from our star reporter on the big event.

That's it folks, we're out of breath. Enjoy your week.

by Nora Snyder (call 286-4450 or fax 286-4425)

Mid-June!! Feels like mid-July!!

The heat does get to you. I don't seem to be able to get myself moving as I should. The heat saps your energy. My hanging flower baskets on the front porch need water at least twice a day or they wilt dead away. On the other hand things seem to be gearing up for summer as the long weekend fast approaches. New stores are opening on the main street with lots of wares for sale. There should be good browsing and hopefully buying for our summer visitors. If you have noticed too, lots of houses which have been up for sale in Minden are sold. More than visitors, we seem to be attracting new citizens to our town!! I have seen two moving vans drive down my street in the past week. Of course, we understand why more people are attracted to our area. We are here to be discovered!! The charm of our town!! The Brezinas knew twenty years ago this was a good place to settle and they have been putting out a great paper ever since. Congratulations!!

The people whose heritage is here; those who know the hardships of the early settlers as told through their family stories. Those of us who cottaged here for long periods of time and decided to move up permanently. Those who discovered Minden in their travels and recognized the beauty, the charm, the lifestyle they were looking for away from the fast-paced cities. All of us here, welcoming those who wish to join us in our fair community on the Gull River and in the surrounding area.

Congratulations are in order for Gladys Dugan who celebrated her 97th birthday on June 1 at the home of her daughter Yvonne Newell. Family, friends, and neighbours visited to make her special day a very happy one.

The Minden Women's Institute will meet on Wednesday, June 16 at 12:00 noon at the Library/Culture Centre. Bring a friend!! This meeting will be a Pot Luck. Please bring your own dishes and cutlery.

Anne Richmond and her daughter Stephanie would like to express their appreciation for "Our Minden Hospital" and for the "excellent professional care" that Anne received when she needed their help awhile ago. Both of them appreciated the graciousness and sincerity from everyone including the housekeeping staff who prepared breakfast and lunch, to the nurses, Judy and Shirley, and to Dr. David Fiddler who meet them at the ambulance and took charge of the care that was needed. Thank you from Anne and Stephanie.

Club 35 will hold its general meeting on Wednesday, June 16 at 9:30 a.m. Everyone is welcome.

Wishing everyone, the new, the old, the in-between, a great week!! I hope we all can find a cool spot in the heat wave!! See you here next week.

SCORING NEWS

Welcome back to the summer group who play Bid Euchre at Club 35 on Friday evenings. June 4 was their first night back for this season. Four moonshots were won by Jeanne Penick, Milt Fletcher, Tom Pearson and Dorothy Walker. High women were Betty Harper with 207, Helen Henderson with 218 and Vicki Campagnolo with 243. The top players for the men were Frank Campagnolo with 233, Olive Jones with 242 and Tom Pearson with 295. Milton Fletcher found the hidden score. Wishing you a good summer of cards and fellowship!!

The usual Euchre group met last Monday evening for cards at Club 35. Mary Pearson won the 50/50 draw. Loretta Lamb won lone hands. Olive Daniels and Tom Pearson were the high scorers for the women and men while Maxine Thomson and Garth Windsor were the lows. Loretta Lamb scored again by taking home the baloney.

The scores are here this week for the Euchre played at the Minden Legion on June 3. Esther Lee and Murray MacKinnon won the most lone hands. High scores were won by Iris Taylor and Marcel Roussel. The second woman and man were Pat Roussel and Marg McAfee. Maria Tschida, Esther Lee, Frank Campagnolo, Betty Harper, Kevin Maloney and Lois Adamson took the other prizes.

Bid Euchre at Stanhope drew thirteen tables last Wednesday evening!! Three moonshots were won throughout the evening including one by Lottie Ruttan!! The high scorers were Bill Milford with 246, Tom Pearson with 263, Jack Cox at 268, Neil Griffin, 286 and Marion Hill with an even 300, on top of the heap!! A reminder that it is Pot Luck at Stanhope this week, starting at 6:00 p.m., and cards at 7:00 p.m.

Duplicate Bridge at Echo Hills last Thursday afternoon saw Stella McMillan and Vange Croucher come first with 63%. Mike Collins and Nick Lehoczy were second with 61%. Gladys Fugar and Helen McCracken were third with 60%.

Now, at Stanhope, playing Contract Bridge last Tuesday afternoon, records were broken all over the place!! Six small slams were bid and made, the most ever in one day. They were won by: Lorna Wagner/Len Mc Niece; Frank Schlotter/ Ross Fletcher; Gloria Moore/ Wally Thomson; Betty Culley/ Mary McNeice; Gertrud Saamen/ Jack Croucher and finally, Gloria Moore, (again) with Pearl Foster. Congratulations to you all!! The high scores of the day went to: Betty Roszell, fourth, at 5090; Ross Fletcher, third, at 6080; Gloria Moore, second, at 6140; in first place, and winning with the highest score ever recorded at Stanhope, was Wally Thomson with eight thousand and seventy (8070)!!!! Great accomplishment!! The score to beat!! It must have been a lively day at the tables.

At Park Lane on Wednesday afternoon, playing Duplicate Bridge, in the North/South position, in first place with 61% were Stella McMillan and Ross Davies. In second, with 60% were Mayme Douglas and Reet Murray. In East/West, in first, Jacqueline and Kelly Metcalf with 60% and second, Betty Dicker and Ross Fletcher with 59%.

The Friendship Club at St. Paul's last Monday had a really good turnout which Katie Parker finds most gratifying. Lone hands was won by Joan Mackenzie as was the 50/50 draw!! Ellie Langpohl was high woman and Norm Lee was high man. The low scores were won by Irene Fuhr and Jack Chilton.

Cribbage at the Legion last Monday, June 7, saw Joey Hevey and Georgina Parkes the winners. Georgina Parkes won the 50/50 draw also. This group would love more players to join them. They are willing to teach you how to play if you don't know how. Join them every Monday evening at 7:30 p.m.

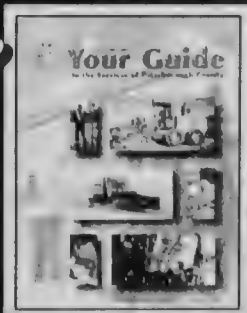

Good week at the tables!! See you here next Monday.

CARDS OF THANKS

On behalf of my family, I should like to thank all of you for the prayers offered up on my behalf, for the flowers, fruit, cards plus the meals brought in after my return home.

A special thank you to my good friend Jean Collier, who looked after my home and kept my friends advised of my condition as I continued to improve. Thanks also for her assistance and care after returning home.

God Bless you all.
Sincerely,
Harry Earle.

THANK YOU

We would like to thank everyone who, once again, made the David Besner Memorial Lob Ball Tournament a success. To everyone who donated their time umpiring games, to Al and Sue Eskelin who, once again, spent the whole day cooking and serving, to Craig and Tammy Smith for their countless hours of phone calls and preparation and to my sister, brother and parents for all their help and support.

Lisa and Matthew Besner.

CARDS OF THANKS

I would like to thank many folks for their cards, sympathy and flowers following the loss of my mother. Your thoughtfulness is very comforting.
Betty Milford.

THANK YOU

Ingoldsby U.C.W. would like to thank everyone who donated items, time and energy to their successful yard sale.

IN MEMORIAM

VOICEY, Joseph - In loving memory of my dear husband Joe, who passed away June 10th, 1982.

*It is sad to walk the road alone
Instead of side by side.
But to all there comes a moment
When the way of life divides.
You gave me years of happiness
Then came sorrow and tears,
But you left me beautiful memories
I will treasure through the years.
Sadly missed and lovingly remembered by wife Alice.*

VOICEY, Joseph - In loving memory of a dear Dad who passed away June 10, 1982. They say that memories are golden And maybe that it true, But we never wanted memories We only wanted you. Love, Loretta, Dave, Audress, Don, Sharon, Allan and grandchildren.

IN MEMORIAM

ROGERS, Helen Mae (Francis) - In loving memory of a dear wife who passed away June 18, 1995.

*My heart still aches with sadness
My secret tears still flow,
For what it means to lose you
Helen
No one would ever know.
I miss you more than anyone knows
As each day passes the emptiness grows
The tears I shed I can wipe away
But the ache in my heart will always stay;
No one knows the grief I bear
When I look around and you're not there,
To your resting place I visit
And place flowers there with care
But no one knows the heartache
Helen
When I turn and leave you there,
When my life on earth is ended
Helen
I pray with all my heart
To be with you forever, never more to part,
Dear Lord keep Helen in your loving care.
Sadly missed and always in my heart,
Husband Gordon
"I Miss You, Love."*

ROGERS, Helen (Francis) - In loving memory of a dear daughter, sister and aunt who passed away June 18, 1995.

*Though her smile is gone forever
And her hand we cannot touch,
Still we have so many memories
Of the one we loved so much.
Her memory is our keepsake,
With which we'll never part;
God has her in His keeping
We have her in our hearts.
Sadly missed by Mom (Ruby) and all your family.*

ROGERS, Helen - In loving memory of Helen, June 18, 1995.

*Four years ago you left us,
But memories keep you near,
To help us when we're troubled
And fight the silent tears.
You touched so many people
In a special kind of way,
Family, friends and others
Each and every day.
Your memory is our keepsake
With which we'll never part,
God has you in His keeping
We have you in our hearts.
Rest in Peace.
With love,
Tom and Barbara.*

IN MEMORIAM

PYE, Harry - In loving memory of a dear Uncle who passed away June 17, 1998.

*It's still so hard to believe
That you are not here.
We miss you so much
And think of you always.
Your silly ways,
Your laughter,
Are all warm memories
That will be with us always.
We love you
And miss you.*

Beth, Dave, Heather and Todd Bryan, Denise, Sean, Jason, Sean Jr. Bailey, Debbie, Rick, Katie, Kristen & Brendan O'Connell.

GREER - Byard and Myrtle - In loving memory of a dear Father and Mother, as well as dear Grandparents who were taken from us on June 20, 1978 and June 20, 1994 respectively.

*It's been a while since you've been gone
And we're still unable to say so long.
Our hearts still hurt and tears still fall
Wishing you both were here with us all.*

*There's not a day we don't think of you
Sometimes it makes us happy
And sometimes we feel blue.
But one thing will always be true
We will always love and miss you.*

Always remembered and sadly missed by Your Family.

A Father's Day Remembrance

PHILLIP, Goldie Franklin - A dear father and grandfather who passed away October 16, 1993. *Gone is the face we loved so dear
Silent is the voice we loved to hear,
To us his name will ever be
The key that unlocks memories.
Always remembered,
Gerry, Danny, David, Donnie, Glenn, Pat, Rosie, Dolly, grandchildren and great-grandchildren.*
